CHEERED FOR MCKINLEY

The Crowd Couldn't Stand a Youngstown Caterer.

DEEP IN DEPTHS OF DEMAGOGY

He Preached the Doctrine of Bryan and Made Marks on a Blackboard—William Radcliffe Failed to Gauge the Sentiment of His Audience.

Billy Radcliffe has come and gone, and the Bryanite leaders are filled with remorse. Wildly they tear their hair and curse the day they yielded to his sweet siren voice as he pleaded for permission to talk on the Diamond, for Radcliffe made Republican votes while in the city.

Billy is a political error. He has evidently had some experience selling liver pads or someone's cure for corns, and believes he can fool the public with his own peculiar silver doctrine as he did with his worthless medicines. Radcliffe is mistaken, at least so far as East Liverpool is concerned. There is not enough gray matter concealed within that proudly poised dome of thought to hoodwink an intelligent audience such as the imperious William faced in the Diamond last night. The Bryanites placed William in the wrong class, William misjudged his audience, and the combined result is a bitter pill for the Bryanites and deep disgust for William.

The Youngstown caterer, for William is the owner of a restaurant, appeared at the appointed time. Standing on a store box and flanked on either side by the regulation street fakir gasoline lamp, William appeared in all the pageantry of a Bryan orator. The lights flickered and shone with unusual brilliancy, and ever and anon caught and reflected the glitter of a dozen Bryan buttons conspicuously displayed on that proudly swelling bosom. It was a grand spectacle, a spectacle not soon forgotten by the poor mortals who had come to hear what the great, the mighty could tell them on his little blackboard about finance. A crowd gathered. Crowds always do gather in East Liverpool. A dog fight or an accident never fails to have its effect, curiosity being the active agent. That is why the knowing William had a crowd.

William had with him his outfit. It consisted of a blackboard, several pieces of chalk, and a conglomerate of misinformation and scullion language. He started at what some one has evidently told him was the beginning of the financial question, but which has no relation whatever to the matter. Then rolling up his trousers and giving his stogy boots an extra pull to see if they were right, he plunged into the mysteries of the subject, mysteries more to William than to his audience, and floundering about in a most ridiculous manner, landed on the Bryan side, spotted and flaked with the profanity and blackguardism of his own argument.

No one attempted to follow that argument. Not even the newspaper men, who have waded through so much etymological hideousness since the campaign began, could keep pace with William. He was as flighty as an equinoctial storm and as erratic as some other political acrobats. He said he had voted for Lincoln, Grant, Weaver, Ben Butler and Cleveland, and one interested auditor could not longer restrain himself and shouted, "You're a flopper." The crowd laughed, and another man said to his neighbor: "He's like that Crisis man; don't know what he is or where he belongs. I'd like to tell them both their places."

William was not disturbed by the laugh. Stormy scenes in Youngstown, Canton and other cities of the district have had their effect, and William has become like unto the pachydermata, his hide is thick. Then he made bold to say Bourke Cochran received $10,000 a night for making Republican speeches, but did not reveal the source of this valuable information. He expected it to dumfound the crowd, but it didn't. East Liverpool crowds are not easily dumfounded, and as he paused in dramatic attitude a voice from far on the outskirts shouted, "Yes, he's worth it."

William's next attack and defeat was on General Palmer, a brave soldier and a worthy gentleman. The general, he said, had turned tail and bolted at Atlanta. The assertion might have gone undisputed, but not in this place. Soon as it had come from the speaker, Will H. Surles shouted out a denial, and again the crowd cheered. This made William angry, and he leaped into the midst of the fray, with banners flying and drums beating he charged his imaginary enemy. His face grew scarlet, great beads of perspiration mantled his wrinkled brow, and the light of anger flashed from his distended eyes. Several people were denounced as d—n liars, and a horse thief would have been a nobleman among the statesmen if they were as William depicted them. Next he brought out his father, a good man, William said, and a soldier. Even he, William, had been an abolitionist hoping for the freedom of the black slave, and now he was again an abolitionist, fighting for the destruction of white slavery. It was a scene never to be forgotten, an occasion which showed the depths of demagoguery to which Bryan and his lieutenants have dropped.

At the close of his address William called for three cheers for Bryan, and throwing up his hands, with the characteristic gesture of a street fakir, led the cry. It was a disappointment. Not more than 20 responded. Then some one called for a cheer for McKinley, and it was given with a will. Clear and loud it rose above the crowd, a tribute to a man East Liverpool has learned to honor.

William retired from the field, he had had enough, and tucking his little blackboard under his arm and his indignation under his hat he walked sadly and slowly away, it is to be hoped a wiser man.

WHY HE DID IT.

W. H. Surles Had Just Cause to Defend General Palmer.

W. H. Surles, who so vigorously informed Billy Radcliffe last night that he had departed from the truth when he assailed General Palmer, had just reason to defend his old comrade. When yet a young man Mr. Surles served in the regiment of Colonel McCook, and that gentleman, recognizing his abilities, recommended him for appointment to West Point. General Palmer seconded the movement with a strong letter which Mr. Surles now has in his possession. The papers were forwarded to Washington, but fell into the hands of Wheeler's cavalry, and were not recovered until after the war. That is why Mr. Surles is not now an officer in the regular army, but he has never forgotten the efforts of General Palmer for his advancement, and deemed it his duty to defend him against the attacks of a man whose sole weapons of warfare are his vocal organs. Even though he is putting forth his every effort for Major McKinley, Mr. Surles could not stand by and hear his old comrade, with whom he was in many battles, reviled and slandered.

FILTER THE WATER.

Patrons of the City Will Have the Same Old Experience.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—The river is up, and the water is muddy. It will likely be muddy all winter, an old story to patrons of the city system. From the time the fall rise comes each year consumers of water have next to nothing but liquid mud for their money. It is black and unhealthy and unfit for anyone. Why don't the city do something in the direction of a filter? Why can't there be found some way to provide better water? We not only get a liberal amount of filth washed down from towns up the river, but it is served to us in such a way that we can't help but know it.

FILTER.

IN HER UMBRELLA

A Lost Pocketbook Was Found After a Long Search.

A prominent member of St. Stephen's church entered a business house late yesterday afternoon, and after looking after her affairs discovered her pocketbook was gone. The office was ransacked, but the missing purse could not be found, and the lady decided to return home, thinking she might have left it there. The search in that direction was equally unsuccessful, and she was about to decide she had lost the pocketbook on the street and it had been found by someone who wanted money when she accidentally discovered it in her umbrella, where it had dropped while she was in the office.

NO DRINKING.

Doctors Who Practice in Ohio Must Be Sober.

The board of medical examiners in session at Columbus are after physicians who are prone to indulge too freely in the use of intoxicants. Protests were uttered against a number of doctors on this ground, and the board decided to investigate before giving a decision. It is believed the examiners propose to take some vigorous action against those physicians who drink to excess, and this is but the beginning of further proceedings along the same line. The sessions of the board are not open to the public.

Married Tonight.

Mr. John McGinnis and Miss Christina Millbaugh will be united in marriage at 8 o'clock this evening by Squire Manley. They will take up their abode on Seventh street.

INDICTED AT LISBON

Local Men Must Answer Serious Charges.

PITTENGER FOR HORSE STEALING

Was Not Unexpected, But William Williamson For Assault With Intent to Kill Is a Surprise—A Leetonia Resident to Be Tried For Perjury.

LISBON, Oct. 8.—[Special]—The grand jury has been in session since Monday, and this morning gave out a report. Seventeen indictments were found, nine coming under the head of general and eight being for breaking the liquor laws. The following were given out:

Jack Fastbinder, Lisbon, shooting with intent to kill; Robert Pittenger, East Liverpool, horse stealing and larceny; William Williamson, East Liverpool, assault with intent to kill; Joseph Nesbitt, Leetonia, perjury in giving evidence before the May grand jury; Michael Schaeff, Wellsville, burglary. The names of the indicted saloon keepers were not given out, and it is understood there are more to follow.

APPOINTED A RECEIVER.

James S. Hilbert to Look After the Costello Property.

LISBON, Oct. 8.—[Special]—East Liverpool had a turn in common pleas court last evening, and two decisions of interest were handed down.

A judgment for $375.37 was given Mattie A. Azdell on a note bearing the signatures of J. C. McClain as principal and W. L. Smith as surety. The note was given nine years ago.

In the case of Smith Fowler against Catherine Costello, instituted a few weeks ago, Judge Smith appointed James S. Hilbert receiver, with power to collect rents and look after the property in East Liverpool.

The appraisal of land in East Palestine in the suit of J. H. Fitch against N. E. Marshall was set aside, and a new appraisal ordered. Two attempts to sell the property were unsuccessful.

The cases of the United States Printing company against J. N. Rentfrow, Marey E. Swearingen against Patrick McGhie, and John Gunter against the Cherry Valley Iron company were settled out of court, and ordered taken from the docket.

A large number of witnesses were examined by the grand jury.

Ruth Nicholls got judgment by confession for $143 from A. G. Phillips. A note 20 years old was the basis of the suit.

The action of John Pitcairn against J. H. Sheller to recover the amount of a note was dismissed, and the case of Kay & Foltz, of Salem, against Hon. W. C. Hutchinson, was settled out of court. The jury gave the defendant a verdict for $108.27 in the case of J. T. Falloon against G. S. Richards. Falloon sued for $200, and Phillips won on a counter claim for damages amounting to $500.

ARRESTED THE PAINTER.

Nicholas Murray Wanted No Ladders on His Ground.

The star case of the season was filed this morning in the court of Squire Rose.

Mrs. Frey keeps a saloon on Jefferson street, and nearby is the saloon of Nicholas Murray. For some reason, which does not appear on the surface, the two do not speak. This morning Mrs. Frey had Francis Beatty painting her house, and he found it necessary to plant his ladder on Murray's property. Murray objected and ordered Beatty off the ground. Beatty refused, and Murray filed a charge of trespass before Squire Rose. Constable Lyon made the arrest, and the hearing was set for this afternoon. The evidence at the trial brought out many a hearty laugh, but the squire discharged the prisoner and dismissed the case. It is possible that other suits will grow out of the matter.

POLLING THE CITY.

Republicans Are Finding How the Town Will Vote.

The parties appointed by the Republican central committee to take a poll of the voters in each ward began their labors this morning. To each precinct in the various wards are assigned three persons, who will ascertain as far as possible just how the voters in the wards stand on the political question so that an estimate can be made of McKinley's majority in the city.

FARMERS WANT PROTECTION

Against the Ever Increasing Rabbits of the State.

A leading farmer of this vicinity expresses the belief that the farmers will be after the next legislature with a strong demand for the repeal of the law

extending protection to rabbits. He says the little things are increasing so rapidly in the state that it will not be many years until they become a pest. The law only allows hunters to kill rabbits during certain months, and the slaughter of that time will not be sufficient to keep them within bounds. When found in large numbers rabbits can do great damage to crops.

OUR BOYS HOPE TO WIN.

How They Will Line Up For the Game on Saturday.

Manager Stevenson was notified today that Steubenville could not play here tomorrow, and the game was postponed until Saturday.

The Eclipse second team are practicing daily for a game to be played with the Wellsville club next week. Roy Colclough is their captain and manager.

NO MORE LOAFING

Will Be Allowed in the Opera House Lobby.

The small boy has become such a nuisance at the opera house that Manager Norris has determined to suppress him. The lobby is always filled with youngsters who beg money and tickets from patrons as they pass. Special Officer John Powell cleared the lobby several times last night, but the crowd returned, and to settle the matter he placed two of the most persistent under arrest. The wagon was called, and they were taken to city hall where Mayor Gilbert gave them a severe lecture and then allowed them to go. The practice must be broken up, and the next boy arrested will be punished.

MANY MEETINGS

Will Be Conducted by the Atkinson Club Before Election.

The executive committee of the Atkinson club met yesterday afternoon, and arranged the following list of dates and speakers: Chester, Oct. 16, Judge P. M. Smith; Congo, Oct. 21, H. E. Grosshans and M. J. McGarry; Oct. 30, J. A. Martin; Allison, Oct. 13, Robert E. Lindsay and A. W. Robertson; Grandview, Oct. 20, W. F. Lones and W. V. Blake; Franklin, Oct. 27, D. J. Smith and O. S. Marshall; Washington, Oct. 23, J. H. Brooks and J. A. McKenzie. A meeting will also be held at Chester, Nov. 2, but the speakers have not been assigned.

INDIAN RELICS.

Peculiar Find on the Virginia Side of the River.

J. C. Kelly and Mr. Fickes unearthed what seems to be a treasure house of Indian relics on the Virginia shore yesterday afternoon. Workmen were grading for the electric road when the gentlemen discovered a number of flint arrow heads in the soil above the gravel. A little search revealed any quantity of flint chippings, and a peculiar looking stone containing a hole a little over an inch square. The hole was chiseled out of the stone. The gentlemen will make further excavations, and believe their search will be rewarded.

AN OLD MAN.

James Fox Lived Through More Than His Allotted Years.

James Fox, aged 77 years, died at his home on Washington and Third streets this morning from an attack of heart trouble and dropsy. Deceased has lived here for seven years, and leaves a wife and seven children. The funeral will take place Saturday morning, and services will be conducted by Father Smythe in St. Aloysius church. Interment will be in Catholic cemetery. Deceased had been ill for several years, and his demise was not unexpected.

DUMAURIER IS DEAD.

The Author of Trilby Succumbs to Heart Trouble.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—[Special]—George Du Maurier, the author, died this morning after a lingering illness. He was a sufferer from heart disease, and a few weeks ago it became known that his nervous system was shattered. Although very ill, his death was unexpected. Du Maurier was the author of Trilby, and gained a wide reputation from the sale of the work.

A Wedding Present.

The fettering girls of the Sebring pottery presented Charles Wippler, an employee of the plant who was recently married, with a handsomely decorated water set.

WILL BEGIN AT ONCE

No More Delay in Occupying the George Building.

THE DEAL WILL SOON BE CLOSED

Trustees Asked to Lose No Time in Getting the New Quarters Ready For the Young Men's Christian Association—Splendid Plans for the Improvement.

After many exasperating delays the directors of the Young Men's Christian association have placed their business on a basis that will allow them to proceed at once with the improvements at the George building.

A well attended meeting of directors was held last evening, and the final action relative to the purchase of the George building was taken. A motion was passed instructing the trustees to arrange the ground lease at once, and see that the property is transferred to the association. They were also instructed to hasten the plans of improvement so that the building may be ready for occupancy at the earliest possible day. The plans have been carefully discussed, and provides for every convenience. The building when ready for occupancy will be arranged so as to make it a model for association purposes, and no provision for the comfort of members is overlooked. The auditorium will be provided with chairs, and all the entertainments of the lecture course will be held there this season. In the gymnasium will be a complete outfit, and the parlors will be comfortable and pleasant. The directors are anxious to have the building occupied by the association as soon as the changes are made.

A PUBLIC SCALE.

Trades Council Wants One Established in Town.

Trades council discussed a matter of importance at the session last night, and if it can be legally done that body will ask city council to appoint a weighmaster.

The session was well attended, and the first business was the determination to have the council represented at the next meeting of the state organization. It is not known when the council will meet, and the secretary was instructed to write the officers and obtain the desired information. They discussed the question of a public scale where coal and any other commodities could be weighed by a weighman appointed by the city for that purpose. Many opinions were brought out, and the matter occupied the greater part of the time devoted to the meeting. It was finally decided that the council favored the move, and it was referred to the legislative committee. They will investigate thoroughly, and if the plan is found all right city council will be asked to pass the required ordinance. Eight new delegates were given seats in the body. They were elected from the different unions under the arrangement providing for greater representation.

IT MUST PAY WELL.

For Henry George Is Ruining His Reputation.

A correspondent of a Cleveland paper read the letter Henry George sent out from this city, and then wrote:

"One is forced to remark upon the great difference between his political letters now being published in the New York Journal and the work in some of his books. He must and should be making a good thing out of his correspondence, for he is killing the great reputation he built up by his unique ideas and strong, virile presentation of them."

GOING TO ALLEGHENY.

The Rebekahs Will Visit the Ladies of Carey Lodge.

The Rebekahs at a meeting held Tuesday evening decided to accept an invitation from the Alice Carey lodge, of Allegheny, to visit them next Wednesday evening. The lodge will leave here in the 8 o'clock train, and will be met in Allegheny by a reception committee who will show them the city. In the evening some degree work will be performed after which a banquet will be given.

WANTS HIS MONEY.

James McMillen Thinks It Should Be Returned.

James McMillen, of Lincoln avenue, lost his pocketbook on Walnut street last Saturday afternoon, and learned today that it had been found near the plant of the East Liverpool Pottery company. The amount was about $25. The name of the man who found the money is known, and Mr. McMillen thinks it should be returned.

A Son.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Grafton, of Fourth street, a son.

Lisbon, Oct. 8.—[Special]—The grand jury has been in session since Monday, and this morning gave out a report. Seventeen indictments were found, nine coming under the head of general and eight being for breaking the liquor laws. The following were given out: Jack Fastbinder, Lisbon, shooting with intent to kill; Robert Pittenger, East Liverpool, horse stealing and larceny; William Williamson, East Liverpool, assault with intent to kill; Joseph Nesbitt, Leetonia, perjury in giving evidence before the May grand jury; Michael Schaeff, Wellsville, burglary. The names of the indicted saloon keepers were not given out, and it is understood there are more to follow.

APPOINTED A RECEIVER.

James S. Hilbert to Look After the Costello Property.

Lisbon, Oct. 8.—[Special]—East Liverpool had a turn in common pleas court last evening, and two decisions of interest were handed down.

A judgment for $375.37 was given Mattie A. Azell on a note bearing the signatures of J. C. McClain as principal and W. L. Smith as surety. The note was given nine years ago.

In the case of Smith Fowler against Catherine Costello, instituted a few weeks ago, Judge Smith appointed James S. Hilbert receiver, with power to collect rents and look after the property in East Liverpool.

The appraisal of land in East Palestine in the suit of J. H. Fitch against N. E. Marshall was set aside, and a new appraisal ordered. Two attempts to sell the property were unsuccessful.

The cases of the United States Printing company against J. N. Rentfrow, Marey E. Swearingen against Patrick McGhie, and John Gunter against the Cherry Valley Iron company were settled out of court, and ordered taken from the docket.

A large number of witnesses were examined by the grand jury.

Ruth Nicholls got judgment by confession for $143 from A. G. Phillips. A note 20 years old was the basis of the suit. The action of John Pitcairn against J. H. Sheller to recover the amount of a note was dismissed, and the case of Kay & Foltz, of Salem, against Hon. W. C. Hutchinson, was settled out of court. The jury gave the defendant a verdict for $108.27 in the case of J. T. Falloon against G. S. Richards. Falloon sued for $200, and Phillips won on a counter claim for damages amounting to $500.

ARRESTED THE PAINTER.

Nicholas Murray Wanted No Ladders on His Ground.

The star case of the season was filed this morning in the court of Squire Rose.

Mrs. Frey keeps a saloon on Jefferson street, and nearby is the saloon of Nicholas Murray. For some reason, which does not appear on the surface, the two do not speak. This morning Mrs. Frey had Francis Beatty painting her house, and he found it necessary to plant his ladder on Murray's property. Murray objected and ordered Beatty off the ground. Beatty refused, and Murray filed a charge of trespass before Squire Rose. Constable Lyon made the arrest, and the hearing was set for this afternoon. The evidence at the trial brought out many a hearty laugh, but the squire discharged the prisoner and dismissed the case. It is possible that other suits will grow out of the matter.

POLLING THE CITY.

Republicans Are Finding How the Town Will Vote.

The parties appointed by the Republican central committee to take a poll of the voters in each ward began their labors this morning. To each precinct in the various wards are assigned three persons, who will ascertain as far as possible just how the voters in the wards stand on the political question so that an estimate can be made of McKinley's majority in the city.

FARMERS WANT PROTECTION

Against the Ever Increasing Rabbits of the State.

A leading farmer of this vicinity expresses the belief that the farmers will be after the next legislature with a strong demand for the repeal of the law

extending protection to rabbits. He says the little things are increasing so rapidly in the state that it will not be many years until they become a pest. The law only allows hunters to kill rabbits during certain months, and the slaughter of that time will not be sufficient to keep them within bounds. When found in large numbers rabbits can do great damage to crops.

OUR BOYS HOPE TO WIN.

Manager Stevenson was notified today that Steubenville could not play here tomorrow, and the game was postponed until Saturday.

The Eclipse second team are practicing daily for a game to be played with the Wellsville club next week. Roy Colclough is their captain and manager.

NO MORE LOAFING

Will Be Allowed In the Opera House Lobby.

The small boy has become such a nuisance at the opera house that Manager Norris has determined to suppress him. The lobby is always filled with youngsters who beg money and tickets from patrons as they pass. Special Officer John Powell cleared the lobby several times last night, but the crowd returned, and to settle the matter he placed two of the most persistent under arrest. The wagon was called, and they were taken to city hall where Mayor Gilbert gave them a severe lecture and then allowed them to go. The practice must be broken up, and the next boy arrested will be punished.

MANY MEETINGS

Will Be Conducted by the Atkinson Club Before Election.

The executive committee of the Atkinson club met yesterday afternoon, and arranged the following list of dates and speakers: Chester, Oct. 16, Judge P. M. Smith; Congo, Oct. 21, H. E. Grosshans and M. J. McGarry; Oct. 30, J. A. Martin; Allison, Oct. 13, Robert E. Lindsay and A. W. Robertson; Grandview, Oct. 20, W. F. Lones and W. V. Blake; Franklin, Oct. 27, D. J. Smith and O. S. Marshall; Washington, Oct. 23, J. H. Brookes and J. A. McKenzie. A meeting will also be held at Chester, Nov. 2, but the speakers have not been assigned.

INDIAN RELICS.

Peculiar Find on the Virginia Side of the River.

J. C. Kelly and Mr. Fickes unearthed what seems to be a treasure house of Indian relics on the Virginia shore yesterday afternoon. Workmen were grading for the electric road when the gentlemen discovered a number of flint arrow heads in the soil above the gravel. A little search revealed any quantity of flint chippings, and a peculiar looking stone containing a hole a little over an inch square. The hole was chiseled out of the stone. The gentlemen will make further excavations, and believe their search will be rewarded.

AN OLD MAN.

James Fox Lived Through More Than His Allotted Years.

James Fox, aged 77 years, died at his home on Washington and Third streets this morning from an attack of heart trouble and dropsy. Deceased has lived here for seven years, and leaves a wife and seven children. The funeral will take place Saturday morning, and services will be conducted by Father Smythe in St. Aloysius church. Interment will be in Catholic cemetery. Deceased had been ill for several years, and his demise was not unexpected.

DUMAURIER IS DEAD.

The Author of Tribby Succumbs to Heart Trouble.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—[Special]—George DuMaurier, the author, died this morning after a lingering illness. He was a sufferer from heart disease, and a few weeks ago it became known that his nervous system was shattered. Although very ill, his death was unexpected. DuMaurier was the author of Tribby, and gained a wide reputation from the sale of the work.

A Wedding Present.

The fetching girls of the Sebring pottery presented Charles Wippler, an employee of the plant who was recently married, with a handsomely decorated water set.

WILL BEGIN AT ONCE

No More Delay In Occupying the George Building.

THE DEAL WILL SOON BE CLOSED

Trustees Asked to Lose No Time In Getting the New Quarters Ready For the Young Men's Christian Association Splendid Plans For the Improvement.

After many exasperating delays the directors of the Young Men's Christian association have placed their business on a basis that will allow them to proceed at once with the improvements at the George building.

A well attended meeting of directors was held last evening, and the final action relative to the purchase of the George building was taken. A motion was passed instructing the trustees to arrange the ground lease at once, and see that the property is transferred to the association. They were also instructed to hasten the plans of improvement so that the building may be ready for occupancy at the earliest possible date. The plans have been carefully discussed, and provides for every convenience. The building when ready for occupancy will be arranged so as to make it a model for association purposes, and no provision for the comfort of members is overlooked. The auditorium will be provided with chairs, and all the entertainments of the lecture course will be held there this season. In the gymnasium will be a complete outfit, and the parlors will be comfortable and pleasant. The directors are anxious to have the building occupied by the association as soon as the changes are made.

A PUBLIC SCALE.

Trades Council Wants One Established In Town.

Trades council discussed a matter of importance at the session last night, and if it can be legally done that body will ask city council to appoint a weighmaster.

The session was well attended, and the first business was the determination to have the council represented at the next meeting of the state organization. It is not known when the council will meet, and the secretary was instructed to write the officers and obtain the desired information. They discussed the question of a public scale where coal and any other commodities could be weighed by a weighman appointed by the city for that purpose. Many opinions were brought out, and the matter occupied the greater part of the time devoted to the meeting. It was finally decided that the council favored the move, and it was referred to the legislative committee. They will investigate thoroughly, and if the plan is found all right city council will be asked to pass the required ordinance. Eight new delegates were given seats in the body. They were elected from the different unions under the arrangement providing for greater representation.

IT MUST PAY WELL.

For Henry George Is Ruining His Reputation.

A correspondent of a Cleveland paper said the letter Henry George sent out from this city, and then wrote:

"One is forced to remark upon the great difference between his political letters now being published in the New York Journal and the work in some of his books. He must and should be making a good thing out of his correspondence, for he is killing the great reputation he built up by his unique ideas and strong, virile presentation of them."

GOING TO ALLEGHENY.

The Rebekahs Will Visit the Ladies of Carey Lodge.

The Rebekahs at a meeting held Tuesday evening decided to accept an invitation from the Alice Carey lodge, of Allegheny, to visit them next Wednesday evening. The lodge will leave here in the 8 o'clock train, and will be met in Allegheny by a reception committee who will show them the city. In the evening some degree work will be performed after which a banquet will be given.

WANTS HIS MONEY.

James McMillen Thinks It Should Be Returned.

James McMillen, of Lincoln avenue, lost his pocketbook on Walnut street last Saturday afternoon, and learned today that it had been found near the plant of the East Liverpool Pottery company. The amount was about $25. The name of the man who found the money is known, and Mr. McMillen thinks it should be returned.

A Son.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Grafton, of Fourth street, a son.

RADCLIFFE, the fakir, last night traded the memory of as gallant an officer as ever held command, General

Palmer, of Illinois, a soldier who bore the same reputation for courage as

General McPherson, or the fighting Mc-

Cooks, of Ohio. The fakir was promptly called down by a veteran present, and courtly Radcliffe dared not repeat his assault.

VETERANS.

Major General Daniel E. Sickles, a gallant soldier as ever were uniforms, says: "My dear comrades, Mr. Bryan proposes to pay all the creditors of our government with silver. This repudiation.

If you consent to this, you consent at the same time to a reduction of one-half of the pensions awarded to the war veterans and to the widows and orphans of those who are not living."

WHY MONEY IS SCARCE.

A favorite theme of Democratic orators is the scarcity of money. They fairly revel in time tried and well worn expressions as they remember the demonetization of silver and lay all the blame on that much abused mint bill.

But how is it here at home? Who caused the scarcity of money in this place? It can be answered in two words—the Democrats. Before Grover

Cleveland and his wild horses started on that mad race through hard times toward destruction a few years ago, money

HANNA IS SANGUINE.

He Is Much Pleased With the Republican Outlook.

DINED WITH MAJOR MCKINLEY.

Four More Delegations Made Political

Pilgrimages to Canton and Heard

Speeches by the Major—Two Ohio

Crowds—Text of One of the Speeches.

CANTON, O., Oct. 8.—National Chairman M. A. Hanna stopped over in Canton between trains last evening. He came down from Cleveland at 5:40. He was met at the depot by Major McKinley and was a guest for dinner at the major's home. He expressed himself as well pleased with the political situation and spoke in most sanguine terms of the result.

CANTON, O., Oct. 8.—Four more delegations have called on Major McKinley.

A small but enthusiastic crowd came in a special car attached to a regular train, the car being gaily decorated. The party came from Goodale, Ind. They were introduced to Major McKinley by

A. P. Jenkins.

The second meeting was a joint demonstration by Ashland and Geauga counties, O., and was held in the Tabernacle, the weather out of doors being cold and dismal. The Ashland county delegation came in a special train of eight coaches. It was an enthusiastic party, conspicuous for the many hundred people. Several men were pointed out as over 80 years of age, and one couple which walked down the aisle of the hall was man and wife, both over 80, but as enthusiastic as the young bloods. The Geauga county party came in two special trains and numbered about 8,000 people. Addresses were made on behalf of Ashland county by Dr. D. Hess, and on behalf of Geauga county by Judge Canfield of Chardon.

Before the speaking began it became apparent that the hall could not accommodate those assembled and those approaching, and it was decided to address Ashland county and the first train lead from Geauga. Next a speech was delivered to the second crowd from

Gauga, and when that was concluded

a large crowd from Parkersburg, W.

Va., was given possession of the hall,

to whom the major spoke.

To the Ashland and Geauga county crowds Major McKinley said:

"I had expected to concentrate the visiting delegations from Ohio into one and address them to-day, but the delegations that are coming are so large that there is no hall in the town that would hold them.

[Laughter and applause.] I thought I might with propriety speak to the citizens of Ashland, Geauga and Cuyahoga counties in one body, for this year our county lines, nor state lines, nor sectional lines, nor class lines, nor party lines impede the progress of the Republican party.

[Continuous applause.] We are sitting together in sentiment and in sympathy, whether we live in one section or another of our common country. We are sitting together for good government, the integrity of public law, for the maintenance of the honor of the national name, and for the return of better times. [Great applause.] I am particularly glad to meet my old friends and constituents of Ashland county. [Applause.] Eighteen years ago

your county was in the congressional district for which I stood as a candidate for congress. I remember as a young man to have gone to your county, almost an entire stranger to your people, and I shall never forget, so long as I live, the warm and cordial welcome you gave me and the splendid support you gave to the Republican party that year. [Applause and cries of "Good, good, good."] I have been in your county since that year, and I have been in the congressional district for which the world's history. [Great cheering.]

The farmers of this country had the best market in the world; had more consumers than they had ever had before; had better paid consumers. But that has all changed. The advertisements in issue in the newspapers used to be "men wanted." The advertisements that run in the newspapers today read "situations

wanted." [Great laughter and tremendous applause.] Our policy seeks to give a situation to every man of country who wants work, and the policy of partial free trade has put the workmen in a situation which entails upon them loss, and upon every farmer of the country injury in his home market. I want you to stand by these great principles. I make no personal appeal to you; I make no mere party appeal to you.

I appeal to you in the name of a country and to give your votes this year to that party which you believe will subserve your highest interests and promote the greatest prosperity of our common country. [Applause and cries of "that's what we want to do."] I have been more than pleased this morning to meet from the old county of Ashland some of my comrades of the war, members of Company G of the Twenty-third Ohio, with whom I have known for more than four years. I was glad to meet and greet them here; no braver men ever went to battle than the members of that company; and what I say of Company G of the Twenty-third Ohio can be said of everyone of the volunteers which

Ashland county furnished for the preservation of the Union. [Tremendous applause.] As in those days you knew no

Democrats and no Republicans, but all nationalists, so this year I bid you obliterate party lines and old party distinctions and unite in sustaining the country, and the honor of the country, and stand for the maintenance of law and order, the public tranquility and the return of a policy that will take care of the American workmen and the American market, and defend it against the workmen and markets of the Old World. [Vociferous cheering.]

BIG REPUBLICAN GAINS.

The Registration in Kentucky Proves

Very Encouraging.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 8.—Reports from over Kentucky show that the registration of voters was heavy to an unprecedented extent, and the Republicans claim to be greatly encouraged over the result. Except in Louisville, Lexington and Covington but one day is given for registration. Figures received from a majority of the towns show uniform Republican gains in the registration and also a great increase in the number who refuse to state their political affiliations.

As a rule the gold standard Democrats have registered as plain Democrats, and it is impossible to estimate their strength. The back districts have not been heard from, but the reports up to date are conceded to be the most significant evidence yet brought forward to indicate how the state will go in November. The Republican gains, according to the face of the registration returns, will amount to over 6,000.

of the political situation in Maryland, complete and detailed character from few days. There is no doubt whatever ill health of the delicate and sensitive or-

Every man who wanted work could find it for the asking, and he was paid just 12 1/2 percent more than he can get for the same labor at present. Business men sold their merchandise at a fair profit, and the owners of property realized handsomely on their investments. Everybody who had the ability to take care of at least a portion of what they earned was prosperous, and the scarcity of money was unknown. Then came that change they talked so much about. The potters could not compete with foreign ware, men were thrown out of employment, wages were reduced. People with bank accounts were compelled to use their savings for the payment of necessary bills. There was retrenchment on every hand, and that has continued. Not knowing what will happen next to further reduce their incomes they are taking care of what they have. That is why money is scarce in East Liverpool. The Democrats have made it scarce, and in the hope of blinding the people are doing their best to ascribe the scarcity to some other cause.

DINED WITH MAJOR MCKINLEY.

Four More Delegations Made Political Pilgrimages to Canton and Heard Speeches by the Major—Two Ohio Crowds—Text of One of the Speeches.

CANTON, O., Oct. 8.—National Chairman M. A. Hanna stopped over in Canton between trains last evening. He came down from Cleveland at 5:40. He was met at the depot by Major McKinley and was a guest for dinner at the major's home. He expressed himself as well pleased with the political situation and spoke in most sanguine terms of the result.

CANTON, O., Oct. 8.—Four more delegations have called on Major McKinley. A small but enthusiastic crowd came in a special car attached to a regular train, the car being gaily decorated. The party came from Goodale, Ind. They were introduced to Major McKinley by A. P. Jenkins.

Hess, and on behalf of Geauga county by Judge Canfield of Chardon.

Before the speaking began it became apparent that the hall could not accommodate those assembled and those approaching, and it was decided to address Ashland county and the first train load from Geauga. Next a speech was delivered to the second crowd from Geauga, and when that was concluded a large crowd from Parkersburg, W. Va., was given possession of the hall, to whom the major spoke.

To the Ashland and Geauga county crowds Major McKinley said:
I had expected to concentrate the visiting delegations from Ohio into one and only one day, but the delegates are coming as so large that there is no hall in the town that would hold them. [Laughter and applause.] I thought I might with propriety speak to the citizens of Ashland, Geauga and Cuyahoga counties in one body, for this year our county lines, nor state lines, nor section lines, nor class lines, nor party lines impede the progress of the Republican party. [Continuous applause.] We are gathered together in sentiment and in action, whether we live in one section or another of our common country. We are struggling for good government, the supremacy of public law, the integrity of our courts, the honor of the national name, and the return of better times. [Great applause.] I am peculiarly gratified to meet my old friends and constituents of Ashland county. [Applause.] Eighteen years ago your county was in the congressional district for which I stood as a candidate for congress. I remember as a young man to have gone to your county almost an entire stranger to your people, and I shall never forget, so long as I live, the warm and cordial welcome you gave me and the splendid support you gave to the Republican party that year. [Applause and cries of "Good evening."] Thrown in a Democratic district that was thought to be impregnable and unconquerable, with a Democratic majority of over 2,000, the Republicans who were united, assisted by Democrats in every county of that district, we turned that Democratic majority into a Republican majority of more than 1,300. [Applause and cries of "Good, good."] That year, as the older men in this audience will recall, I was contending for two things.

In every speech I made I presented what I regarded as two great overmastering issues. One was the return to specie payments and the other was the continuance of a protective tariff policy that would preserve the American market for the American farmer and the American worker. [Applause.] We are contending this year for the same principles. On the one hand the allied parties of the opposition insist that this country shall make a step backward. Ever since 1879 we have been on a gold basis, on the solid rock of honest and of honest payment of debts to the public and private. [Great applause.] It is now proposed that we shall enter upon a sea of not only a depreciated silver dollar, but of a depreciated paper money, and to that the Republican party answers "no, forever no." [Tremendous applause.] Some people seem sometimes to despair of the future of the United States. Nobody doubts any apprehension on that score. The United States is a great and too resourceful to have this progress impeded for any considerable length of time by any political party. [Applause.] And this year the hand of 1878, for the restoration of a protective policy.

In 1882, a year the most prosperous in our history, we were under a protective policy. Every man in this country who wanted to work and who wanted to get better wages than he ever got in any other period of our history or in any other period of the world's history. [Great cheering.] The farmers of this country had the best home market in the world; had more consumers than they had ever had before; had better paid consumers. But that has all changed. The advertisements in 1882 in the newspapers used to run "men wanted." The advertisements that run in the newspapers today read "situations wanted." [Great laughter and tremendous applause.] Our policy seeks to give a situation to every man of this country who wants work, and the policy of partial free trade has put the workmen in a situation which entails upon them loss, and upon every farmer of the country injury in his home market. I now what we want to do, my fellow citizens, this year, is to stand by these great principles. I make no personal appeal to you; I make no mere p. r. appeal to you.

I appeal to you in the name of a country and to give your votes this year to that party which you believe will subserve your highest interests and promote the greatest prosperity to our common country. [Applause and cries of "that's what we are going to do."] I have been more than pleased this morning to meet from the old county of Ashland some of my comrades of the war—members of Company G of the Twenty-third Ohio, with whom I served for more than four years. I was glad to meet and greet them here; no braver men ever went to battle than the members of that company; and what I say of Company G of the Twenty-third Ohio can be said of everyone of the volunteers which Ashland county furnished for the preservation of the Union. [Tremendous applause.] As in those days you knew no Democrats and no Republicans, but all patriots, so this year you obliterate party lines and old party distinctions and unite in sustaining the country, and the honor of the country, and stand for the maintenance of law and order, the public tranquility and the return of a policy that will take care of the American workman and the American farmer, and defend it against the workshops and markets of the Old World. [Vociferous cheering.]

Sore Throat or Tonsillitis.
This disease is found most frequently in young persons.
The symptoms are a chilly feeling with more or less aching pains in the back and limbs.
The fever rises very rapidly, especially the evening of the first day. The patient complains of soreness of the throat and difficulty in swallowing.
On examination, the tonsils are seen to be swollen and usually covered with little white points or spots about as large as a pin head. At times the tonsils are very red and free from spots. The duration of the disease is from three to ten days.
TREATMENT: Give patient a brisk cathartic, keeping the bowels free all the time. Apply applications of some kind to the throat and give Tonsiline in doses of from a teaspoonful for an adult, down to five or ten drops for small children, as directed in table of doses. Using Tonsiline as a gargle—Tonsiline one part, water three parts—every half hour will hasten recovery. Children sometimes complain of severe earache, which can best be eased by dropping warm sweet oil into the ear every hour or two until relieved. Tonsiline sold by all dealers. Two sizes, 25 and 50 cents.

the world's history. [Great cheering.] The farmers of this country had the best home market in the world; had more consumers than they had ever had before; had better paid consumers. But that has all changed. The advertisements in 1882 in the newspapers used to run "men wanted." The advertisements that run in the newspapers today read "situations wanted." [Great laughter and tremendous applause.] Our policy seeks to give a situation to every man of this country who wants work, and the policy of partial free trade has put the workmen in a situation which entails upon them loss, and upon every farmer of the country injury in his home market. I now what we want to do, my fellow citizens, this year, is to stand by these great principles. I make no personal appeal to you; I make no mere p. r. appeal to you.

BIG REPUBLICAN GAINS.

The Registration in Kentucky Proves Very Encouraging.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 8.—Reports from over Kentucky show that the registration of voters was heavy to an unprecedented extent, and the Republicans claim to be greatly encouraged over the result. Except in Louisville, Lexington and Covington but one day is given for registration. Figures received from a majority of the towns show uniform Republican gains in the registration and also a great increase in the number who refuse to state their political affiliations.

As a rule the gold standard Democrats have registered as plain Democrats, and it is impossible to estimate their strength. The back districts have not been heard from, but the reports up to date are conceded to be the most significant evidence yet brought forward to indicate how the state will go in November. The Republican gains, according to the face of the registration returns, will amount to over 5,000.

MARYLAND FOR MCKINLEY.

Wellington Says He Is Sure of Carrying the State.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 8.—United States Senator-elect Wellington, in speaking of the political situation in Maryland, said:
"I have received reliable reports of a complete and detailed character from every election district during the past few days. There is no doubt whatever as to the result; Maryland will go for McKinley by a large majority. My information is not guess work, but is definite and positive in every particular."

Fusion in West Virginia.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Senators Faulkner and Butler of the Democratic and Populist committees have respectively received telegrams from Parkersburg, W. Va., informing them that fusion between the Democrats and Populists on the electoral ticket in that state had been perfected on the basis originally suggested by the Populists of four Democrats and two Populists. The committees continued their session with the hope of extending the agreement to the state ticket.

Heard Tom Reed Speak.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—Hon. Thomas B. Reed spoke to a big Republican demonstration here last night in Music hall. Hon. Roger Walcott and Senator Lodge also talked.

Harrison in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 8.—Ex-President Harrison addressed a big crowd in Music hall here last night. Mrs. Harrison was with him.

Dr. Depew in Illinois.

GALESBURG, Ill., Oct. 8.—Dr. Chauncey M. Depew addressed a big crowd in this city last night on political issues.

STUMP GOES TO ITALY.

He Will Explain Immigration Restrictions to the Italian Government.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Herman Stump, United States commissioner of immigration, sailed on the steamer Paris and will proceed immediately to Rome. Under instructions, which he received from Secretary Carlisle of the treasury department, he will "consult with the secretary of the interior of the kingdom of Italy in relation to the emigration of Italians to the United States. He is also directed to appear in person before the Italian parliament, which convenes in November, and to hurry back here before congress meets so as to report the result of his mission in Italy.

That the mission is urgent is indicated by the haste of Colonel Stump's departure and by the peremptory instructions of the secretary of the treasury.
Baron Fava, the Italian ambassador, was long in correspondence with the treasury department about the deportation of Italian immigrants, and the lynching of Italian immigrants in New Orleans a few years ago caused a feeling that has never been entirely removed.
Italy now asks that a properly accredited authority shall appear before the parliament and explain the workings and restrictions of the United States immigration laws, so as to obviate the necessity of deportation "and prevent fruitless journeys."

Big Fire in Ecuador.

LIMA, Peru, Oct. 8.—The fire at Guayaquil, Ecuador, which is said to have destroyed 15 squares of that town, including the most important buildings in it, is still raging. Among the buildings known to have been destroyed are four banks, all the foreign consulates, all the principal business houses, the military barracks and the arsenal.

Many a nervous woman sits up all the night and tries to read herself sleepy. Nine to one she don't accomplish her purpose. Nine to one, she gets more and more nervous. The slightest sound strikes terror to her heart. The dark corners of the room contain a thousand frights. She doesn't know what she is afraid of, but she is afraid, actually, honestly, nervously, abjectly afraid. Healthy women are not cowards. If a woman is nervous and sleepless, there is something the matter with her. The most delicate nerves in her body are set on edge by weakness or disease. Nine-tenths of the nervousness, irritability and bad temper in women is merely a symptom of ill health—ill health of the delicate and sensitive organism that makes her a woman. If she is overworked, or over-worried, the effect will show itself there. There is no use taking harsh and deadly narcotics for nervousness and sleeplessness. It will leave the body in a worse condition than it was before. The way to effect a cure is to cure the cause. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do it. It has cured tens of thousands of cases of female weakness and nervousness. It is a most wonderful invigorating nerve or nerve food. It brings sound sleep and restores the glow and bloom of health. It is the only medicine now before the public for woman's peculiar ailments, adapted to her delicate organization by a regularly graduated physician—these maladies and skilled specialist in these maladies. Its sales exceed the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

The story of its discovery and its wonderful success is told in one part of Dr. Pierce's great thousand page book "Common Sense Medical Adviser," which will be sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay for mailing only. World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 603 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Picked Up in the East End by Our Representative.

Our readers are indirectly indebted to Mr. Elmer Stevenson for the following East End items. In discussing some particulars about the new School Board and the E. L. Potters' Union with our representative he incidentally mentioned that he had been under the weather with a sore back, but had got over it and that if our "Scribe" wanted the minute details of a remarkable case, he ought to call on Mrs. Caroline Wile of No. 225 Railroad street. Hither he wended his way and gleaned from that lady the following: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills," said she "and found great relief in their use. My back has ached so long that I have forgotten when I was first troubled. I am now 70 years of age and had about given up all hope of ever being helped. I have taken medicines but they did not prove very beneficial; my back would ache just the same in the night, and I was unable to get up and lie in bed; sharp twinges of pain and other symptoms convinced me that my kidneys were out of order. Always on the outlook for anything that might bring relief, when I heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of I got a box at the W. and W. Pharmacy. After using them for a short time I could plainly notice the good effect they were causing. I continued on them for some time longer and gradually my kidneys improved. I found Doan's Kidney Pills a splendid remedy and advise others to try them; feeling confident if they do so they will have no reason to regret it. I know of a number of people here in the East End that swear by Doan's Kidney Pills."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box or 6 boxes for $2.50. Sent by mail on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

A MURDER AND LYNCHING.

The Result of an Election Day Row in Georgia.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 8.—The election caused a murder and lynching at Mount Junction, in Screven county. Gus Williams, Populist negro, struck a ticket out of a Democratic negro voter's hand. The Democratic negro struck Williams for his insolence, and Williams fired at his assailant, but missed his aim and shot and instantly killed Engineer Middleton of the Central railroad, who was an innocent looker on. Bystanders took Williams and lynched him and riddled his body with bullets.

Election Shooting in Georgia.

ELBERTON, Ga., Oct. 8.—At the polls on election day a quarrel arose, and Will Mayfield shot and fatally wounded Bud Sanders. Tom Wall shot I. G. Swift in the arm and shoulder. Mayfield ran and a party followed him and landed him in jail, as they did Wall.

Gompers Downed the Socialists.

DETROIT, Oct. 8.—Samuel Gompers of Chicago, Thomas F. Tracey of Boston, John C. Denehy of Chicago and J. A. Whitaker of Salt Lake City have been chosen by the Cigarmakers' International convention as delegates to the American Federation of Labor. The socialists tried to beat Gompers. But failed.

Canadian Pacific Strike Won.

MONTREAL, Oct. 8.—The operators' strike on the Canadian Pacific is over. The strikers, with the exception of those who have committed acts of violence, are to be reinstated. The company agrees to recognize the union.

The Condition of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The treasury has lost $125,200 in gold coin and $5,000 in bills, which leaves the true amount of the gold reserve $125,195,632. Gold to the amount of $160,000 was deposited in the sub-treasury at New York.

May Succeed Bishop Keane.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 8.—A local paper has information from a prominent Catholic that Bishop Thomas A. Becker of Georgia will probably be made rector of the Catholic university.

De Lesseps Probably Suicided.

PARIS, Oct. 8.—It is rumored that Victor de Lesseps, a son of the late Count de Lesseps, who has died, committed suicide.

TURKEY IS SURE.

Forbade Usa a Guardship Before We Asked.

THE BANCROFT BARRED OUT.

All Powers, Parties to the Treaty of Paris, Denied the Right to Pass Ships Through the Dardanelles—Russia Raised an Objection.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The action of the Turkish government in giving it to be understood that no guardships of the powers parties to the treaty of Paris shall be admitted to passage through the Dardanelles is looked upon here as a shrewd piece of diplomacy. The fact is that thus far the United States has not made any formal request to have a guardship at Constantinople, and this announcement in advance of the preference of a request renders it improbable that one will be preferred. The purposes of the government in sending the little Bancroft to Turkey have been carefully concealed by the state and navy departments, and even now it is not possible to secure an official admission that it was intended to send her to Constantinople.

Beyond doubt, however, it was the purpose to have her near Constantinople, and that, if events assumed a serious phase, Minister Terrell might seek the firm necessary to ensure her safe passage through the straits. This purpose was at last made clear when the little boat sailed from Gibraltar for Smyrna, only about 150 miles distant from Constantinople, an easy day's sail, and this is probably the reason for the semi-official announcement of the Turkish government.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 8.—It has been semi-officially announced here that the Turkish government, after weighing the matter over and consulting with certain advisers, has come to the decision not to admit the United States cruiser, Bancroft, through the Dardanelles and, therefore, she will not be able to act as the guardship of the United States legation in these waters. The port, it is added, has also decided not to admit the guardships of Greece and Holland, which countries also proposed to have a ship stationed in the Bosphorus as a guardship and to furnish men to guard their legations in case of emergencies.

It should be added, however, that the United States government is not known to have presented through its minister, Mr. Terrell, a formal demand for the passage of the Bancroft or any other United States warship through the straits of the Dardanelles, and it is recalled that Greece, in 1888, was allowed to have a guardship in the Bosphorus.

The exact ground upon which the Turkish government takes its stand in this case is not stated, but it is known in official circles here that Russia has objected to the presence in the Bosphorus of United States, Grecian or Dutch guardships.

The objections to the presence of the extra guardships here are said, according to general report, to be based upon the Berlin agreement, which excludes from naval representation in the Bosphorus any powers that were not party to that agreement, and that, therefore, the United States cannot be allowed to send a warship to the Straits of the Dardanelles. It is believed that Mr. Terrell, about a month ago, sent an urgent request to Washington for a United States war vessel.

It is further intimated that the United States government will insist, by force if necessary, upon the presence of the Bancroft in the Bosphorus, taking the ground that such a step would not be an unfriendly act to Turkey, in view of all the circumstances in the case, and that the protection of the lives and property of American citizens made it necessary.

The Turkish government has also sent a circular to the different embassies, demanding the right to search foreign vessels passing Constantinople for Armenians. It is believed that the powers will not accede to the request, as, up to the present, Armenians who have sought refuge on board of British or French vessels have been protected by the guardships here until the vessels on which they had sought refuge sailed for their destination.

A COLD-BLOODED CRIME.

Chicago Doctor Slowly Murdered His Wife, Then Suicided.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Dr. Carl F. Nitz, a German physician, has murdered his wife and then killed himself. The murder of the woman was done in the most cold-blooded manner. Nitz and his wife have for some time lived unhappily, because of her constant efforts to obtain possession of his property. This provoked frequent quarrels between them, and during one of their rows he stabbed her in the abdomen with a surgical instrument. The wound was not immediately fatal, but the doctor, sitting down by her side, stabbed her again, this time in a manner which insured her death. He then, as is proved by notes that were found after his death, sat by the woman's side for over four hours watching her die slowly, and now and then, to note the effect of another wound, he would jab his knife into her again. He carefully noted all the symptoms of the woman's approaching demise, and at one time left the house and the dying woman while he procured an oyster stew at a neighboring restaurant and bought the revolver with which he shot himself. He then suicided.

Against an Allegheny Firm.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The postoffice department has issued a fraud order against Gordy & Co. and Gordon & J. Gordy, 40 Anderson street, Allegheny, Pa. The firm advertised the sale of a photographic outfit and promised profitable employment to purchasers. These promises were, it is alleged, not fulfilled.

A Failure in Texas.

TYLER, Tex., Oct. 8.—The Tyler Car and Lumber company, one of the largest lumber concerns in Texas, has been placed in the hands of a receiver. The liabilities are in the neighborhood of $250,000. The assets are estimated at from $150,000 to $200,000.

BOLD BICYCLE BANDITS
A Crime That Equals the Deeds of Jesse James.
MASKED MEN KILLED A CASHIER,
Then a Spectator and Robbed a Minnesota Bank of $1,000 in Cash—Made Their Escape on Wheels—Posses Pursuing the Two Desperados.

FAIRMONT, Minn., Oct. 8.—Two masked and bicycle mounted robbers swept into the little town of Sherburne, 14 miles from here, dashed into the Bank of Sherburne, murdered the cashier and a bystander, murdered the cashier and a bystander, and securing $1,000 from the cash drawer, mounted their wheels and escaped before the eyes of the startled visitors.

The affair was conducted with the bravado of the border drama and the killing of the two men, one of whom died instantly, was purely wanton, as neither made any resistance.

The dead are:
J. A. Oester, a Wood traveling agent of the Walter A. Wood Harvesting company, shot through the heart.
Cashier Thornburn of the Bank of Sherburne, shot in the head.

The crime is equaled only by the raid of Jesse James and the Younger boys when they swept down upon the little town of Northfield, a few miles north of the scene of the present crime, decimated with a large amount of money. In that instance the robbers departed on horses, whereas this time the criminals, in keeping with the times, used bicycles, escaping from the enraged citizens of Sherburne.

At about 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon two masked men walked through the front entrance of the bank to the cashier's box, and without a word whipped out their revolvers and leveled them at Cashier Thornburn. The latter did not move, but the next minute the report of two revolvers rang out and the cashier fell at his desk.

At another desk in the bank stood J. A. Oester, a traveling man. He was the only immediate bar to the end which the robbers sought to gain, and as Thornburn fell to the floor they turned and shot him dead.

As rapidly as possible they leaped over the railing which separated them from the cashier's desk and secured $1,000 in cash. They then ran for the back door of the bank, where they had left their bicycles, mounted them and rode away. It all happened inside of 20 minutes, and the only witness to the Artist Koerner Held For Murder.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—William Jay Koerner, a newspaper artist, formerly of Pittsburgh, has been held without bail, on recommendation of a coroner's jury, on the charge of murdering Rose A. Redgate, whom he shot in the streets of this city Sept. 22.

Wm. ERLANGER,

Cor. Fifth and Washington Streets.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mrs. Maud Evans moved to this city from Matamoras yesterday.

J. F. McCoy, of the light plant, is off duty on account of illness.

Will Leech, of the freight depot, is confined to his room by illness.

The household effects of Joseph Cruxall arrived here from Leetonia this morning.

The East Liverpool ball club will this evening hold a business meeting at city hall.

A large number of people left this morning to attend the East Palestine fair.

The Tiffin pottery has again closed down after giving the employees work for two weeks.

The small boys serenaded Frank Oyster and Daniel Ogilvie last evening in the customary style.

Roy Rinehart is the happy father of an 11 pound girl baby which came to his home yesterday afternoon.

Doctor Lee is rapidly recovering from the effects of his recent accident, and will be able to occupy his pulpit next Sunday.

Rugby football teams managed by Red O'Shay and Dick Meredith will play this evening on Jackson street, between Fifth and Sixth.

The Ben Hur will pass down from Pittsburgh this evening. The Bedford is due up this afternoon. The river is gradually falling.

The Christian Endeavorers of the First Presbyterian church will give a musical social this evening in the lecture room of the church.

Frank Anderson, a prominent member of the organization, has tendered his resignation as president of the Ancient and Honorable Order of the United Sons of Rest.

The funeral of Mrs. Thomas Glenn took place this morning from the Catholic church, and was attended by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends.

Dr. G. P. Ikert has sued Richard Burrows for $91 in the court of Squire Rose. The amount is claimed due for professional services. The case will be heard Saturday.

Capt. Elwood Pusey is in New Cumberland today negotiating with the owner of the Dispatch for the use of that boat while the Ollie Neville is being repaired.

Councilman Ashbaugh arrived from New York this morning, after a trip in the interest of the West End pottery. He says the political situation in that state is very much one-sided—all for McKinley.

Milton S. Dunlap went to Tarentum, Pa., this morning in response to a telegram announcing the death of his brother-in-law, William Baker, at that place. Deceased formerly resided in this city.

Miss Ella Betz, formerly a school teacher in the Central building, and Rev. Melvin Swineheart, of Portsmouth, were united in marriage today at Lancaster. They will make their home in Portsmouth.

C. H. Turner, a Democratic orator from New York, was in the city last evening. Turner was booked for a speech across the river, but owing to a misunderstanding it was decided not to hold the meeting.

Croxall, Heckathorn and Pittinger are patiently waiting in the Lisbon jail for the action of the grand jury. Those who know anything of the trio told it to the jury yesterday. Moses Swindells is still behind the bars.

Workmen began dredging in the river this morning at the foot of Washington street. They are removing dirt from the shore, so that during the low stage of water a pool will remain where coal barges may be floated.

The task of placing in position the fifth strand of the bridge cable was commenced this afternoon. Within two weeks the cable will be completed and securely anchored. There remains yet to be made but two strands.

The McKinley club will hold their business meeting this evening. The meeting arranged by the club for tomorrow evening has been postponed until next Friday night, in order to give the committee more time to complete the program.

Jethro hollow residents hail with delight the coming of winter. During the warm weather a gang of youths frequent the spring at that place, and indulge in drunken carousels nightly. Sleep is impossible at times, and the gang have become very much of a nuisance.

The Republican employees of the bridge company, not to be outdone by a Democratic fellow workman who placed a tin rooster on top of the Ohio tower, have decided to purchase a live coon and place it by the emblem of Democracy. A subscription will shortly be started to raise funds for the purchase of the noble animal.

A team driven by Patrick Mooney took fright at a thrashing engine on the road to Lisbon yesterday, and soon became unmanageable. While the horses were wildly prancing around the buggy broke, and the occupants screamed loudly. No one was hurt, and after the horses were quieted the journey was resumed.

THE... CROSSER- OGILVIE CO

Cloaks.

We are getting new ones in every day. Cool weather is here. You need a cloak right now. What is the use of waiting for a month when you can buy a Cloak now for the same money as you would pay later, and get the use of it these cool mornings and evenings? We are showing an immense line of Plush and Cloth Capes, all lengths and styles. The new sleeves that we are showing you will not be seen in other stores. Our aim has always been to show the most complete line of Cloaks in the city. We will not disappoint you this year.

Children's Cloaks.

A great many stores overlook the fact that the little people want to keep warm in the winter time. Not so with us. We are just as particular to have a nice line of popular priced Cloaks for the children as we are for the big folks. Come in and see what a nice line we are showing. You don't have to buy.

Black Dress Goods.

Our display of these goods will surprise you. Twice the amount we have ever shown. Every grade of goods that money will buy. Plain and figured black stuff is very popular. We can save you money on these goods.

EARLY SETTLEMENT LIKELY.

The Venezuelan and Arbitration Questions Nearing the End.
LONDON, Oct. 8.—Regarding the various reports in Great Britain and the United States in reference to the Venezuelan question your correspondent learns that there have been no negotiations between London and Washington since the blue book of July was issued. The story cabled from Washington to the effect that Great Britain has made further concessions, amounting almost to a complete surrender of her claims, is pronounced to be absolutely untrue, and it is added that negotiations regarding Venezuela will be resumed upon the return of Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, to Washington, with the instructions of the Marquis of Salisbury in the case.
Sir Julian Pauncefote was booked to sail by an earlier steamer, but has been obliged to postpone his departure on account of diplomatic business and will start for New York from Liverpool, on the White Star line steamship Germanic, on Oct. 14.
Previous to leaving England Sir Julian Pauncefote will have another conference with the Marquis of Salisbury and the ambassador will probably see the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain.
Sir Julian Pauncefote has recently paid many visits to the foreign office and to the colonial office, but it is explained these visits do not indicate that there have been any new developments in the Venezuelan question.
Regarding the treaty of general arbitration which has been so widely discussed, the same conditions prevail.
Negotiations upon this subject will also be resumed upon the return of Sir Julian Pauncefote to Washington.
The government has every expectation of an early and satisfactory settlement of the matters in dispute, and it is believed the next message of President Cleveland to congress and the next queen's speech at the opening of parliament will announce a settlement of both questions.

May Come Here.

Hon. A. C. Smith and Hon. J. P. Green, members of the legislature from Cleveland, will speak at a Republican meeting to be held in Salem next Thursday. The speakers are well known orators, and the Lincoln guards will endeavor to have them speak here.

Many of your friends, or people whom you know of, have contracted consumption, pneumonia or other fatal diseases by neglect of a simple cold or cough. Foley's Honey and Tar, a safe, sure and pleasant cough medicine, would have saved them. It is guaranteed.
For sale at Reed's and Bulger's drug stores.

Their Choice.

While drawing their monthly pay in Wellsview yesterday, the employees of the Cleveland and Pittsburg were given the privilege of having gold or silver. Many told the paymaster they had no choice, but a number of silver men immediately asked for gold.

Shall It Be 16 to 1?

Silver men say yes, gold men say no. But all who have used it whether gold or silver men concede that Foley's Honey and Tar cough syrup is superior to all others as 16 to 1.
For sale at Reed's and Bulger's drug stores.

An East End Entertainment.

An excellent entertainment will be given at the Second U. P. church in East End tomorrow evening. Attend it and you will enjoy the evening.

Never Say Die.

Many desperate cases of kidney diseases pronounced incurable have been cured by Foley's Kidney cure. Many physicians use it.

THEY TALKED ON TURKEY.

Important Session of the American Board of Foreign Missions.

TOLEDO, Oct. 8.—At the first session of the American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions the most important discussion was on "The Crisis in Turkey," which was discussed by Rev. Dr. Judson Smith, foreign secretary. Addresses followed by Dr. Albert Plumb of Boston and Rev. W. S. Dodd of Turkey. The discussion was closed by Hon. Everett O. Wheeler, the eminent New York lawyer, on the duty of our government to American citizens in Turkey.
The resolutions committee was expected to report a strong series of resolutions relative to the Armenian outrages and calling upon the government to demand redress for the losses sustained by mission stations, but the report was postponed.
The most gratifying feature of the home secretary's report was the announcement that the debt which has hung over the board since 1898 has been entirely cancelled. For the past year the receipts were, from all sources, $743,164 and the total expenditures $742,901, which includes the cancellation of the deficit of $114,632.

Ohio Bankers in Session.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 8.—Over 100 members of the Ohio Bankers' association met in Y. M. C. A. hall with C. E. Niles of Findlay, the president, in the chair. William H. Simms, president of the Dayton National bank, made the address of welcome and Robert McCurdy, president of the First National bank of Youngstown, responded. The address of President Niles followed.

Withdrew For Harmony's Sake.

Cautions about the Use and Selection of Spectacles

"Persons having normal vision will be able to read this notice as a specimen of 14 lines from the eye with ease and comfort; also will be able to read it with ease and comfort. If unable to do so your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. When the eyes become tired from over-exertion, or if the lenses are broken and the spectacles are not used, the eyes will become inflamed and the vision will be blurred. Constant use of cheap spectacles will result in permanent injury to the eyes and the loss of vision. Therefore, it is imperative that you should have your eyes examined by a competent oculist or optician, and that you should use only the best quality of spectacles, and that you should use them properly."
